(July 30, 2004- TROY) There will be a press conference held Monday morning at 11 a.m. by Mayor Harry Tutunjian to announce two major initiatives to help fight crime in Troy.

The press conference will be held at the South Troy substation, located on Fourth Street across from Mann Avenue. One of the announcements directly deals with the recent homicide on Hill Street in front of a convenience store.

Tutunjian will be joined by members of the Troy Police Department, City Council members, and neighborhood leaders. All members of the press are encouraged to attend.

Questions about the press conference will not be taken until Monday morning. Any other questions can be directed to me at 270-4554.
